Adam's Place Celebrates Its 10th Anniversary during the annual Vintage & Vines 2019 Fundraiser

LAS VEGAS, NV (March. XX, 2019) – Adam's Place, a local nonprofit organization, will celebrate its 10th anniversary during the annual Vintage and Vines, Wednesday, April 10, from 5:30pm – 8:30pm at Red Rock Country Club, located at 2250 Red Springs Dr, Las Vegas, NV 89135.

Vintage and Vines with event partner United Healthcare present a Roaring 20's themed fundraiser fun-filled with dancing to the sounds of Naomi Mauro and her band. Guests are encouraged to dress in 1920's style attire and enjoy an amazing evening loaded with delicious cuisine and exciting entertainment all while sipping fine wine and craft beers. A silent auction will include special experiences for guests to bid on. Michael MacLeod, director of business development for National Youth Sports | Nevada will be the master of ceremonies.

Proceeds from the event will support programming for children, teens and their adult caregiver whether he or she is a parent or guardian.

Adam's Place depends on donations from the community to fund ongoing programs and new projects like support groups, expression workshops and activities, a facilitator guide book and training for volunteers and much more.

Additional sponsors include: Red Rock Country Club, Jaguar Land Rover Las Vegas, The Capital Grille, Mon Ami Gabe and Buca di Beppo.
