ADAM'S PLACE OFFERS ADULT GROUP THERAPY SESSIONS WITH RENOWNED LAS VEGAS THERAPIST STEVEN KALAS STARTING OCTOBER 14TH

LAS VEGAS, NV (October 14, 2019) – Adam's Place, a local nonprofit organization, will be offering a clinical, adult group therapy program lead by therapist, Steven Kalas. The theme will be Recovering from Loss and Moving Forward.

Steven Kalas is a therapist, speaker, published author, and philosopher. He works as an individual, marriage and family counselor. Kalas is also a pastoral counselor in Las Vegas, Nevada. He travels nationally as a public speaker and provides consultation to a myriad of organizations. "Human Matters," Kala's twice-weekly column written for the Las Vegas Review Journal, from 2007-2015, answered readers' questions. Kalas added his musings about life, love, family, ethics, sex, culture, art, philosophy, religion, celebration, and suffering. Since 2015, his articles routinely appear each week in community newspapers.

"We are excited to partner with Kalas to offer an adult group therapy on site at Adam's Place," said Kelly Thomas-Boyers, executive director of Adam's Place.

The program fee is $50 per person and includes four sessions. The dates are October 14th and 21st, November 11th and 25th. All sessions will be held at Adam's Place 2820 West Charleston, Suite 40, Las Vegas, NV 89102 - 5:00pm to 6:00pm.
