“Adam’s Place has helped us greatly, particularly in showing my kids and me that we’re not alone.”
- Jessica Thomason
Mother of two young children

“My mother found an organization called Adam’s Place that helped me realize that I was not the only child who has gone through a profound loss.”
- Camp COPe Kid

“PTSD is an ugly and cruel tormentor and visits people of ALL different types of tragedies... I wish we had know about you (Adam’s Place) 6 years ago maybe our son would be alive today if we had.”

Adam’s Place is a 501c3 registered non-profit organization with the State of Nevada.
The bonds created with peers, coping skills acquired, and confidence gained, help our children to increase school attendance, school performance, gain a sense of security, build confidence, and most importantly restore hope.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

CAMP COPE

Adam’s Place provides “Camp Cope”: coping skills, education, activities, and peer support, at no cost for children 5-18 years of age. We also provide a parenting skills class for adults.

We coordinate our 8 week programs in two sessions: Fall Camp and Winter Camp.
