ADAM'S PLACE LAUNCHES NEW PEER SUPPORT PROGRAM FOR YOUNG ADULTS COPING WITH THE LOSS OF LOVED ONES

Las Vegas (February 16th, 2020) - Las Vegas nonprofit, Adam's Place, is launching a new program aimed at helping young adults in Southern Nevada.

Starting next month, A weekly online support curriculum will be offered for adults ages 18-25. Every Tuesday, trained volunteer facilitators will lead and encourage group members to express the many feelings that are part of the grieving process. The sessions will take place in a safe and confidential setting for those going through similar life-changing experiences.

"Dealing with loss is tough at any age. Peer support helps children and young adults feel less alone," said Karen Stevens, School Programs Coordinator for Adam's Place. "When a young person is given an opportunity to develop their social and emotional coping skills, it will serve them throughout their lifetime. That's what Adam's Place staff and volunteers have been doing for our community for over 11 years."

The new peer support program for young adults will run from March 2nd - April 6th 2021. The sessions will be conducted over Zoom every Tuesday at 6PM. The sessions will be offered at no charge to the participants. To register, contact Kacey Menge at menge@unlv.nevada.edu or at (585) 331-2240.
