Nonprofit Adam's Place launches Fall 2021 "Camp Cope" to help kids & teens coping with grief & loss

Las Vegas (September 13th, 2021): Adam's Place, the Las Vegas non-profit that provides peer support for kids, teens, and families, is launching virtual "Camp Cope" on October 11th 2021. To take part, participants must go through mandatory "orientation" via Zoom which is happening Monday September 13th, 2021 & Monday October 4th, 2021.

Registration is underway for the 8 week virtual "Camp Cope " which will be conducted via Zoom by trained facilitators. The camp is open to kids across Southern Nevada from age 3 to 18 who have experienced loss of loved ones. Organizers say the bonds created among peers at Camp Cope provide the social/emotional coping skills and confidence to help youth increase school attendance & performance, gain a sense of security and most importantly restore hope.

Studies show that grieving children can have:

- Increased depression and anxiety throughout childhood and adulthood.
- Decreased academic performance
- Increased probability of delinquency
- Increased probability of drug use
- Increased probability of early sexual activity and teen pregnancy
- Increased probability of gang involvement

To ensure all programs & services are available at no charge for kids, teens, and families, Adam's Place needs your financial support. One way to do this is to become part of the nonprofit's "Superhero Club". Donors can sponsor programs year-round by committing to giving just $20 a month.
